

- I-44, St. Louis City, two lanes closed westbound from Arsenal to Shrewsbury until December 2018.
- I-44, St. Louis City, the eastbound exit to Vandeventer is closed until early 2019.
- I-44, St. Louis City, one lane closed westbound between Jefferson and Grand through 2019.
- I-44, St. Louis City, two lanes closed westbound between Grand and Kingshighway through 2019.
- I-44, St. Louis City, one lane closed westbound between Kingshighway and Arsenal through 2019.
- I-44, St. Louis City, one lane closed eastbound from Shrewsbury to Jefferson through 2019.
- I-64, St. Louis City, one lane closed westbound across the Poplar Street Bridge into Illinois until December 2018. Starting Monday, September 10, one additional westbound lane will be closed until October.
- I-64, St. Louis City, the ramp from westbound to 9th Street is closed until late September.
- Route 367, St. Louis City, the east half of Halls Ferry Circle will be closed through early October. Northbound traffic will only be able to stay on northbound Route 367.
- I-44, St. Louis County, the ramp from Shrewsbury to eastbound I-44 is closed until December 2018.
- I-70, St. Louis County, the Route U eastbound exit ramp to I-70 is closed until September 2018.
- I-70, St. Charles County, the ramp from T.R. Hughes to westbound I-70 is closed until the new ramp opens in late 2018.
- Route 61, St. Charles County, access from Route P is closed through September.